FOUND AT LAST.

Marsh's Golden Balsam, for the Throat and Lungs, is the Right Remedy.

Twenty-four years ago my wife and I were out on Lake Ontario in a sail boat, during a hard wind storm, and were capsized and thoroughly drenched with water and chilled through. She took a severe cold and cough, from which she never recovered. I have spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and patient medicines. She had tried everything that offered any hope of relief or cure of her distressing cough, but all in vain. A short time ago I was given a sample bottle of Marsh's Golden Balsam for the throat and lungs. It seemed to help her. I purchased a large bottle, and then another, and then two more—for at last I had found the right remedy. It has cured her."—J. W. Brown, carriage manufacturer, Kansas City, Mo.

Forty years ago the Philadelphia bar association raised about $4,000 for the erection of a monument to the memory of Chief Justice Marshall. This fund has accumulated till it now reaches $20,000. The appropriation recently made by Congress of $20,000 for the same purpose has been added to the bar association fund, making an aggregate of $40,000, which will immediately be expended toward the erection of a suitable monument at Washington, to commemorate the services of the great Chief Justice.
